Rochelle Mapes earned a Master of Arts and Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from Cal State University, Long Beach. She is currently on faculty at the American Ballet Theatre Gillespie School. Her diverse choreography has been presented on the professional concert stage, in college dance departments, studios, and extensively with competitive high school dance teams. Rochelle is often described as a ‘true dance educator’ and has trained thousands of dancers in contemporary dance and jazz technique. While her career has always been comprised of equal parts educator, choreographer, and dancer, she is most fulfilled in fostering talent and training dancers to reach their fullest potential.
